#Classof2022

Back in January, The Office of Undergraduate Admissions surprised Roswell senior, David VanAsselberg at his school with a celebratory visit! David was the first among this years accepted freshman class to officially submit his enrollment deposit, confirming his attendance at KSU for the fall of 2018. VanAsselberg plans to study information technology. His father, also David, earned a Master of Information Systems degree from KSU in 2006. David says, "I'm looking forward to living on campus and moving away from home- mom and dad- and being part of KSU."

Highlights

- KSU was recently ranked #13 on U.S. News & World Reports list of Universities and colleges where students most want to attend.

- SGA Vice President and tour guide, Iggy Mobolaji is serving on the presidential search committee for KSU's next president.

Accepted Freshmen Share Their Excitement with #wisechoiceKSU

When our new acceptance packet hit mailboxes in December, members of the Class of 2022 took to social media to share their excitement by posting photos with their Destination Owl Nation posters and #wisechoiceKSU. The excited students pictured below are among the first to be accepted under the new competitive admissions model.
